"Losing Weight Is Easy When You Do It Together"
Sattler's Community Diet Workshop, began Sept. 26th at Sattler's 998 Broadway and Boulevard Mall. Re-numeration is $5 registra-tion fee and $2 weekly at-tendance charge. New mem-bers are welcome to join at any time. After a workshop-er has reached his goal, the member qualifies for the maintenance program which entitles the dieter to come back any time, free of charge as long as he stays within two pounds of his goal.
In addition to the obvious benefits for the Workshop-ers, Sattler's entire share of the registration fees and weekly dues will be evenly distributed between commu-nity organizations including Women's American ORT, Catholic Charities, Negro Scholarship Fund and the Council of Churches.
Classes begin at 4:30 P. M. for teenagers and at 10:30 A.M. for men and wo-men; at the Boulevard Mall at 7:30 P.M. for everyone.

MUSTANG CLUB
MUSTANG CLUB PROJECT NOT TOMORROW! TODAY!
(The purpose of the Mus-tang Club is:)
1. To help start a Credit Union in the East Side Com-munity.
2. It's time for an organ-ization to unite as brothers and sisters and work to-gether for our betterment.
3. We must earn money in every possible way we can, for instance, we can run dances, have rummage sales, raffles, etc.
4. We need a 100% mem-bership and community sup-port. Why should it be nec-essary for anyone in the East Side Community to borrow money from anyone other than ourselves? Why should we pay the money lenders the big dollars that they have been taking out of our mouths and pockets for years? If other people can do it, the Negro can do it;

each year. The entire pro-ceeds are given to our sel-ected charities: namely, the United Fund of Buffalo, the United Negro College Fund, and the upkeep of the Links Room in the Booth Memorial Hospital. Also, two sch-olarships are given to de-serving high school gradu-ates.
Serving on the committee is Mrs. Wayman C. McCoy, Mrs. I. L. Scruggs, Mrs. Leeland Jones, Jr., Mrs. Nathaniel C. Webster, Mrs. H. Alfred Lewis, Mrs. Le-roy Shropshire.
Mrs. Vera H. Johnson, President; Mrs. Joanne Champion, Publicity Chair-man.

A delightful affair was held at the Plaidlock Club, Sunday past.
It was sponsored by Mrs. Majorie Butler and Miss Nan Jones to benefit the above mentioned young ladies in the two "Queens Contest" held at Bethel Church re-cently. The proceeds were donated to the "Woman's Day Fund."
Mrs. Adeline Rogers, Chairman of Woman's Day" was the donor of the hall.
The mode of entertain-ment, a fast moving, inter-esting fashion show was co-ordinated by Miss Grace Diamond.
Featuring coudre fashions were seven lovely models, among them: Lavonne and Denise Day, Majorie Butler, Vera Gilliam, Carolyn Jack-son, Charlene Lee and Grace Stewart.

but we must do it together. I think it is about time we got off our rear ends and did somethingto better our-selves, and help others. So let's pitch in and get going. Mustang Club, John Young, Director
